

Knowledge Partnership Day: From Recovery to Resilience
Preliminary Agenda (Tentative)
April 26, 2016

Venue: Room L101, IFC, 2121 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Washington, DC 20433

- 8:30-9:00 Coffee and Registration
- 9:00-9:05 Welcoming remarks
Ingrid-Gabriela Hoven, Director, Climate Change, World Bank
- 9:05-9:15 Setting the agenda
James Close, Director, World Bank
- 9:15-10:00 Nepal: One year after the April 2015 Earthquake
Vijay Rana, Under Secretary, National Reconstruction Authority, Nepal
Marc S. Forni, Senior Disaster Risk Management Specialist, World Bank
- 10:00-10:30 Coffee break
- 10:30-12:00 Philippines: An inclusive and integrated approach to disaster resilience
Rosalía V. De Leon, Alternative Executive Director, Philippines
Sean Bradley, Lead Social Development Specialist, World Bank
Matthias Niggel, Senior Disaster Risk Management Advisor, GIZ
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch
- 13:00-13:30 Presentation by GNDR: Stronger together: Supporting implementation of post-2015 frameworks
Marcus Oxley, Chair
- 13:00-14:30 Mexico: From the 1985 Earthquake to Hurricane Patricia
Luis Manuel Puente Espinosa, National Coordination of Civil Protection, Ministry of Interior, Mexico
José María Tapia Franco, Director General for Risk Management, Ministry of Interior, Mexico
- 14:30-15:30 Serbia: Increasing resilience to floods through an integrated approach
Marko Blagojevic, Director, Office for Reconstruction and Flood Relief, Serbia
- 15:30-16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00-17:00 Disasters, Fragility, and Conflict: A Joint Agenda
Lilianne Fan, Research Associate, Independent Consultant

17:00-17:30 Round-up on lessons learned from recovery and resilience
James Close, Director

17:30-19:00 Informal Drinks at IFC Rooftop