Cyclone Pam was the most destructive in the region for 40 years. It resulted in widespread devastation across Vanuatu, causing massive damage and loss of life.

Key facts:
- $449 million estimated damages.
- Vanuatu is one of the most vulnerable countries to natural disasters in the region.
- The cyclone caused power outages and water shortages for months.
- Crop damage and livestock losses impacted the population for a year.
- The cyclone caused widespread destruction and loss of life in Vanuatu.

Cyclone Pam's economic impact on Vanuatu:
- Vanuatu is one of the most vulnerable countries to natural disasters in the region.
- The cyclone caused power outages and water shortages for months.
- Crop damage and livestock losses impacted the population for a year.
- The cyclone caused widespread destruction and loss of life in Vanuatu.

Cyclone Pam also affected neighboring countries:
- Fiji
- Tonga
- Cook Islands

The Pacific is one of the most natural disaster-prone regions on earth.

In the past 50 years, Vanuatu has been affected by 50% of all major storms in the world, resulting in an average of 89 people killed and 705 people injured.

Agricultural damage:
- $64 million estimated damages.
- 90% of agricultural produce was damaged.
- Damage to livestock and crops.

Cyclone Pam's economic impact on Vanuatu:
- Vanuatu is one of the most vulnerable countries to natural disasters in the region.
- The cyclone caused power outages and water shortages for months.
- Crop damage and livestock losses impacted the population for a year.
- The cyclone caused widespread destruction and loss of life in Vanuatu.